

Business Conditions

a review by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

---

Index for the year 1961

Agriculture

Farm income at high level,
December, 14-16.
Trends on farms in District states,
January, 4-7.

Banking and monetary policy

Bank loans and liquid assets,
December, 5-9, 11-13.
District dimensions, March, 4-8.
Interest rates in a free market,
September, 11-16.
Liquidity of business loans,
March, 8-12.

Business finance

Financing the business upsurge,
October, 5-11.
Small business investment companies, a progress report, May, 11-16.

Consumer credit and savings

Consumer spending — will it give depth and breadth to the recovery?
August, 4-7.
Mortgage rates decline further,
May, 5.

Consumer credit (con't.)

Shift from saving to spending?
August, 8-10.
Twentieth anniversary of savings bonds,
May, 6-10.

Economic conditions, general

Depressed areas — some lessons from the past, June, 5-12.
Higher education — rapid growth, financial headaches, February, 11-16.
Personal income trends,
December, 9-11.
Population growth in the Fifties — five midwestern states, March, 12-16.
Private pension plans continue rapid growth, September, 6-11.
Spotlight on prices, November, 2-14.
The stock market in 1961, August, 10-16.
The trend of business, January, 2-4;
February, 2-5; March, 2-3; April, 2-4;
May, 2-4; June, 2-5; July, 2-4; August,
2-4; September, 2-5; October, 2-5;
November, 14-16; December, 2-5.

Industry and trade

Area shifts in manufacturing, July, 11-16.

Downtown office space in Chicago—supply up, rising further, April 4-7.

Electric power consumption — a measure of industrial activity in the Indianapolis area, January, 7-12.

Mobile homes, a maturing industry, February, 6-10.

The port of Chicago — future prospects, July, 5-11.

International economic conditions

Economic integration in Europe — its significance for U. S. exports, April, 7-16.

The reverse yield gap, January, 12-16.

Public finance

“Fannie Mae” and credit policy, June, 12-16.

Recent trends in state tax legislation; fiscal pressures easing? October, 11-16.

---

